nent, says " it looks so much like a dime that it will take in an omnibus driver in the dark." John G. Saxe, the celebrated wit and satirist, is engaged to deliver his poem on "Yankee-land" before the Evansville, Ind., Library Association on the approaching 4th of July, Philosophers say that shutting the eyes makes the sense of hearing more acuts. This may account for the many closed eyes that were seen in one of our churches last Sunday, A LUCKY DISTRICT FOR GOVERNORS.

The Marion (Ala.) Commonwealth mentions the fact that the fourth Congressional district has furnished Alabama with her Governors for ten years out of the last twelve. And the present Democratic renders it quite likely that for the next four years the "old fourth" will continue to enjoy that distingnished privilege.

DEATH's Dornos .- We have inadvertently omitted to notice the recent death of two gentlemen who have left their mark upon the history of our State. We refer to Col. John M. Havron, of Marion, and Eli Richey, Esq., of Bradley county. The formor was a Senator, and the latter a Representative in the last Legislature. They were both men of strong, good sense, and of unblemished moral charseter, and contributed much towards shaping the legislation of the session with which they were identified. Col. Havron had, indeed, served in the Legislature repeatedly, and alawys enjoyed the respect and confidence of his fellow-members.
